

Accomplishments

- 1,002 college credits granted
$650,000 worth of credits from the University of Massachusetts system
- 34 campus & field-based courses in Alaska, Massachusetts & Spain
Alaska Outdoor Science School (AOSS), Tidelines Institute, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts and AIPC Pandora
- 334 students earned college credit
From 32 US States and 12 countries
- 62 partner schools and mentoring organizations represented
- 45 scholars, professors and academic support staff hired
Brown University, Colorado State, Dominican University, Hunter College Silberman School of Social Work, Northwestern, Prescott College, Stanford, UC Berkeley, University of Hawaii, University of Indiana, Universidad Madrid, University Michigan, University of North Florida, University of Oregon, University of Texas
- 1,540 hours of classroom and field-based instruction provided
Classroom instruction + Writing Center + College Visits + College Application Workshop + Research
- 50% less expensive than other leading college-credit summer programs and portable credits
Average cost of SDXCO = $7,500 compared to $15,000 of similar course at NYU. Credits have been portable to schools like SUNY, Northwestern, UC

Recent Alumna Leveraging Power of SDXCO

Alana Barnett,
Atlanta, GA

SDXCO Massachusetts 2024

Anthropology, Music & Indigeneity with Professor Ben Salinas
Questbridge - full scholarship recipient to Davidson College

“SDXCO and my class made me see the world differently. Seminar style learning was thought provoking and led to some of my favorite moments of the program. This summer gave me so much confidence and made me realize what I want in a college. I learn best in smaller, more intimate and supportive environments.”